Chainbridge Road, Blaydon

Location

The premises are located on Tundry Way which is just off Chainbridge Road, the main thoroughfare of the industrial area of Blaydon. The premises are situated adjacent to the Scotswood Bridge on the south bank of the river Tyne. The immediate surrounding area is industrial in nature. Blaydon town centre is to the West with Newcastle city centre approximately five miles east. Connections to the wider north east region are good with the A1 within a few minutes' drive.

Description

The premises themselves comprise a steel frame industrial building under a multi pitched roof. Externally an office block runs along the southern elevation. To the eastern elevation there is a yard area providing secure external storage and access into the workshop areas. Internally the office space is cellular in nature proving a mixture of meeting rooms, offices, reception and staff facilities.

The manufacturing area is accessed via up and over roller shutter doors. This area has concrete floors with light provided via translucent panels in the roof and high level lighting. Heating is provided via gas fired hot air blowers.
