Location

Seaham is an attractive coastal town in County Durham, situated approximately 15 miles south of Newcastle upon Tyne, 12 miles east of Durham, 6 miles south of Sunderland city centre and 25 miles north of Middlesbrough.

The town benefits from excellent road communications being adjacent to the A19 and the A1(M) being approximately 7 miles to the west, so providing a quick and easy access to the north east region.

Seaham also has its own railway station providing services north to Newcastle and south to Stockton and Hartlepool.

In recent years, the town centre has enjoyed significant regeneration with the Byron Place Shopping Centre opening which has a 42,000 sqft Asda as its anchor occupier. Other occupiers include Costa, B&M, Greggs, O2, Subway and Wilko. In addition, located close by is the Dalton Park outlet shopping centre, a very popular retail and leisure outlet providing in excess of 300,000 sqft of space. Occupiers include Cineworld, KFC, The Range, McDonalds, M&S Outlet, Next, Adidas and Moulton Brown.

The whole estate, known as Spectrum Business Park, extends to provide circa 385,000 sqft of commercial accommodation in 9 buildings. Spectrum 7 is located on the northern section of the Park, with the offices enjoying an open plan aspect to the east over the North Sea.

Occupiers on Spectrum Business Park include Durham County Council, Believe Housing, ResQ, Kidde and MRC Global.
