PORTLAND
HOUSE

INTRODUCTION

PORTLAND HOUSE IS AN AWARD WINNING NEWLY REFURBISHED GRADE A OFFICE

The inspiring workspaces, set over five floors, are designed with quality, productivity, sustainability and wellbeing at their core.

The building contains an innovative communal hub in a Grade II listed building, extensive end-of-journey facilities and a wrap around terrace looking over the city centre.

The building is centrally located opposite the Laing Art Gallery and a two minute walk to Northumberland Street. Monument and Manors Metro Stations are within a five minute walk.

OUR BUILDING

PORTLAND HOUSE IS A NEWLY
REFURBISHED GRADE A OFFICE
EXTENDING TO OVER 60,000 SQ FT

The building provides space that allows occupiers to feel secure and energised in a workplace that fosters collaboration, creativity and innovation.

FLEXIBLE SPACES

PORTLAND HOUSE NEW WAYS TO WORK

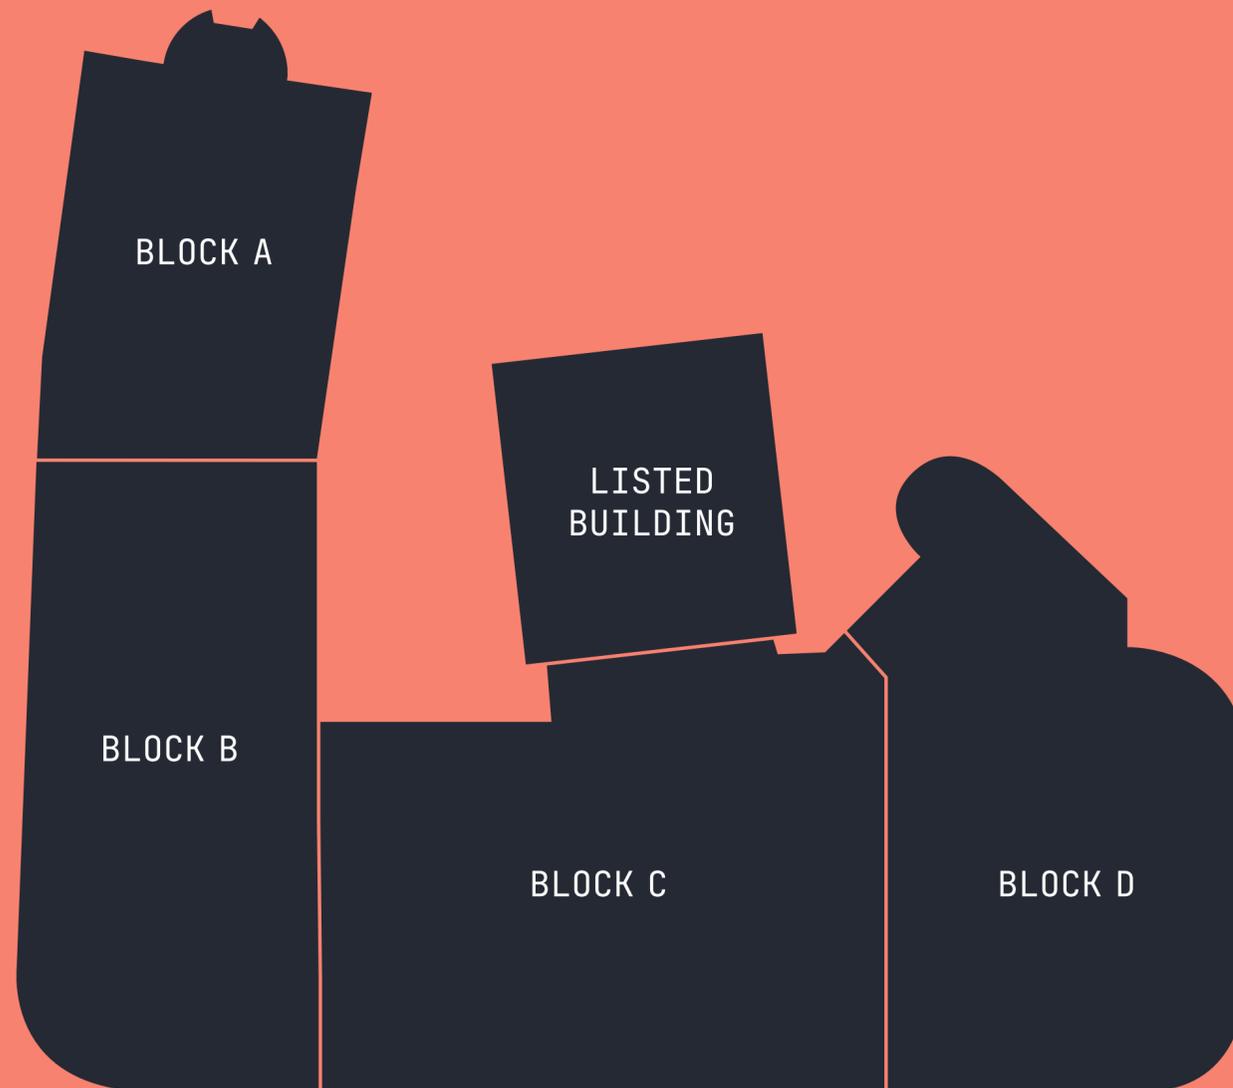

Portland House has been reimagined to create an exceptional working environment. A new central reception has been built with biophilic installations to provide a real sense of arrival.

The central Grade II listed building has been converted to provide town hall and meeting space. This gives occupiers the ability to work outside their demise and host meetings.

The building provides dual and triple aspects which flood the floorplates with natural light.

AREA SCHEDULE

THE LAYOUT AND DEPTH OF BUILDING ALLOWS FOR AN INCREDIBLY FLEXIBLE FLOORPLAN LAYOUT. THE SIZE OF FLOORPLATE CAN BE TAILORED TO THE OCCUPIER.
